Discrimination, prejudice and stereotyping are learned behaviors. Most people who engage in these behaviors are unaware that they are hurtful, exclusionary and sometimes even illegal. I believe that once individuals understand the message that “Unity is not Uniformity” our differences will become resources rather than barriers to understanding and working together. My goal as a member of the Diversity Task Force is to be a leader to my peers and to my community in pluralistic and inclusive behavior.

Robin Landsman

Extension Agent, Family and Consumer Sciences
Wake County
4001-E Carya Drive
Raleigh, NC 27610-2914
State Courier: 59-91-00
Email: robin_landsman@ncsu.edu
Phone: (919) 250-1107
Fax: (919) 250-1097

BACKGROUND
Prior to working for NC State University, Robin was a professional trainer with experience the curriculum design and facilitation of diversity education. Robin has a Masters of Public Administration from New York University and a M.S. in Human Resource Training & Development from Western Carolina University.

CATALYST TEAM FOCUS
Robin is a facilitator for the Opening Doors workshop.