

STEVEN J. DUNDAS

Curriculum Vitae

February 2012

Department of Economics
North Carolina State University
4129 Nelson Hall
Raleigh, NC 27695-8110 USA

Phone: (848) 466-6764
Email: sjdundas@ncsu.edu
Web: www4.ncsu.edu/~sjdundas

Education

Ph.D. Economics, North Carolina State University, expected 2015
M.S. Agricultural and Resource Economics, University of Delaware, 2011
B.S. Natural Resource Management cum laude, University of Delaware, 2003

Academic and Professional Experience

- Teaching Assistant Department of Economics, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC, August 2011 – present
- Department of Food and Resource Economics,
University of Delaware, Newark, DE, August 2010 –
December 2010
- Research Assistant Department of Food and Resource Economics,
University of Delaware, Newark, DE, August 2009 – July 2011
- Photojournalist Journal Publications Inc., New Brunswick, NJ, October
2006 - July 2009
- Senior Environmental
Scientist Brennan Environmental Inc., Summit, NJ, September
2004 - October 2006
- Co-Founder and
Creative Director AERIA Entertainment, LLC., Asbury Park, NJ, September
2004 - June 2009
- GIS Research Associate Emergency Response & Remedial Division,
Environmental Protection Agency, New York, NY,
Summer 2003

Working Papers

Fooks, Jacob R., Steven J. Dundas, and Titus O. Awokuse. 'Welfare gains from the removal of natural resource export restrictions: evidence from British Columbia.” Revise and re-submit at The World Economy.

Duke, Joshua M., Steven J. Dundas, and Kent D. Messer. “Cost-effective conservation planning: twenty lessons from economics.” Under review at Journal of Environmental Management.

Works in Progress

Duke, Joshua M., Steven J. Dundas, Robert J. Johnston, and Kent D. Messer. “Optimal supply of landscape-based public goods: prioritization with and without spatial interdependencies.”

Duke, Joshua M., Steven J. Dundas, Robert J. Johnston, and Kent D. Messer. “Cost-effectiveness gains from applying monetized benefits and costs to parcel prioritization.”

Abstracts in Refereed Journals

Duke, Joshua M., Steven J. Dundas, Robert J. Johnston, and Kent D. Messer. 2011. “Public goods and spatial location: Stated preference prioritization with spatial interdependencies.” Agricultural and Resource Economics Review.

Dundas, Steven J., Jacob R. Fooks, and Titus O. Awokuse. 2010. “Welfare gains from the removal of natural resource export restrictions: The case of British Columbia” Agricultural and Resource Economics Review, 39(3): 586.

Presentations

2011 Annual Meeting of the Society for Benefit-Cost Analysis, Washington, D.C.

2011 North Carolina State University CEnREP Colloquium, Raleigh, NC

2011 AAEA and NAREA Joint Annual Meeting, Pittsburgh, PA

2010 NAREA Annual Meeting, Atlantic City, NJ

Grants and Awards

University Fellowship and Teaching Assistantship, Dept. of Economics, North Carolina State University, August 2011 – present.

Graduate Student Conference Scholarship, Northeastern Agricultural and Resource Economics Association, July 2011.

Professional Development Award, Dept. of Graduate & Professional Education, University of Delaware, June 2010.

Graduate Student Travel Grant, Northeastern Agricultural and Resource Economics Association, June 2010.

Research Assistantship, Dept. of Food and Resource Economics, University of Delaware, 2009 – 2011.

Outstanding Senior Award for Natural Resource Management Program, Dept. of Food and Resource Economics, University of Delaware, May 2003.

International Experience

Tanzania, University of Delaware Study Abroad Program, Studied behavior of African Wildlife under Richard Despard Estes, January 2001.

Costa Rica, Volunteer on PRETOMA Olive Ridley sea turtle conservation project, Summer 2002.

Professional Association Memberships

Association of Environmental and Resource Economists
Agricultural and Applied Economics Association
Northeastern Agricultural and Resource Economics Association
Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society