

76th National 4-H Conference

Purpose:

To involve 4-H'ers, volunteers, and professional's, in 4-H program development to share ideas and information on the National level.

Cost:

North Carolina 4-H awards a partial scholarship to each person selected to attend. Each delegate; however, will be asked to pay $250 to cover part of their expenses.

Selection Criteria:

1. Individuals attending should have experience on local, county, district, and/or state advisory groups or councils, etc.
2. Individuals should have enough remaining years left in 4-H to make significant contributions to the program when they return home.
3. Individuals should have the growth potential and flexibility to meet different situations.
4. Individuals must be between 14-18 years old and are selected to attend through a Application, Resume, Interview (ARI) process. Applications are due by May 16, 2005 this year. At least 5 scholarships will be awarded

Where is it?

National 4-H Conference is held at the National 4-H Center in Chevy Chase, Maryland.

Questions?

Tovi Martin, Extension Assistant, Expanded Teen Programs, NC 4-H, (919) 515-8480, tovi_martin@ncsu.edu